EQUIVALENCE RELATIONS AND BOREL REDUCTION

LONGYUN DING

ABSTRACT. In Descriptive Set Theory, Borel reduction is an useful tool to characterize the relative complexity of equivalence relations from vary branches in mathematics. In resent years, many logicians worked on this topic and many interesting results were founded. In this talk, we will give a survey on this topic, from the beginning to some brand new results.

SCHOOL OF MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES, NANKAI UNIVERSITY, TIANJIN, 300071, P.R.CHINA
E-mail address: dinglongyun@gmail.com